WINE & SPIRITS Year’s Best Champagne	Dec. 2008	92 points / 100 “Opulent Champagne, this is saturated with ripe fruit, from white peach to white raspberry and lime. It’s gloriously heady, yet the acidity keeps it clear and aligned. Old-fashioned rococo elegance.”

WINE ENTHUSIAST www.winemag.com/buyingguide		92 points / 100 “Richly colored in hues of amber and gold, with a toasty, full-bodied nose that offers maturity and depth. This Champagne is totally on the money, with ripe but reserved apple and citrus flavors, and then the slightest bit of mushroom and baked bread on the finish”
GUIDE HACHETTE	2010 Edition	 Coup de Cœur & Golden Grappe (best wine of the year) ...its effervescence highlights its beautiful bright golden hue. Its subtle bouquet extends in the mouth where fullness and freshness meet with strength and delicacy. This superb wine is the perfect accompaniment to a white meat, such as free-range poultry, roasted or served with a sauce.

DECANTER.COM	2009	Top 10 rosés Champagnes “A perennial favourite this. It's ripe and expressive with herbal dashes, leafy red fruit and clotted cream undertones. In the mouth there's an abundance of forest fruits, firm minerality and a savoury twist.”
FALSTAFF (Austria)	Dec. 2009	90 points/100 „Helles Rubin mit Pinkreflexen, sehr bewegtes Mousseux. In der Nase frische Frucht, nach Herzkirschen und Ribiseln, unterlegt mit angenehmen Gewürzanklängen und etwas Haselnuss, zart nach Rosenöl. Am Gaumen lebendig strukturiert; hat Rasse, feine vinöse Anklänge and Cassis, Zitrus, mineralische Noten, bleibt gut haften, zart nach Ribisel, aber auch wieder florale Nuancen im Rückgeschmack.“

CELEBRIS VINTAGE 1998 EXTRA BRUT

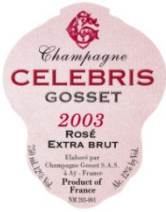

ROBERT PARKER Wine Advocate	Dec. 2008	96 points / 100 “Beautifully focused, linear wine that sparkles on the palate with the essence of white peaches, pears, quince and flowers. This is a great effort »
WINE ENTHUSIAST	Dec. 2008	93 points / 100 “Certainly dry...this latest release is in a more opulent style. There is the proper grapefruit, mineral and flint character. Add to that yeast and toast , and the wine shows fine complexity and aging potential.”
