88 Winery of Good Hope 2010 Bush Vine Pinotage (Stellenbosch).

An opaque garnet color in the glass, this is a deep and brooding Pinotage that shows great intensity and concentration. Heady black fruit, espresso grinds, woody spice and black tea all abound on the nose and mouth, and a glimmer of peppery game lingers on the end. Big and firm with strong tannins and a tight finish. World Premiere Wines LLC. Best Buy. —L.B. abv: 14% Price: $13

86 Winery of Good Hope 2010 Mountainside Shiraz (Stellenbosch).

Here's a straightforward but enjoyable Shiraz with notes of dark plum, cherry and strawberry on the nose and mouth. There's a touch of greenness on the palate augmented by firm, young tannins, but it all works out and fades smoothly on the finish. World Premiere Wines LLC. —L.B. abv: 14.5% Price: $14
